ASIAN CANADIAN LABOUR ALLIANCE

JOIN US

The Asian Canadian Labour Alliance (ACLA) is a collective of union and community activists of Asian descent that was founded in 2000. ACLA plays a unique role in the labour movement by bringing together Asian-Canadian activists to build upon and continue a proud history of activism in the struggle for justice for all.

ACLA's goals are the following:

- ♦ Strengthen an Asian-Canadian labour identity and develop a union-positive presence in our communities;
- ♦ Raise the profile of Asian Canadian labour issues;
- ♦ Fight for social, economic and political justice for all;
- ♦ Encourage Asian Canadians to take leadership positions in their unions, communities and governments;
- ♦ Challenge racism within the Labour Movement.

ACLA works in coalition with organized labour and other allies whose mission is consistent with these goals. For more info, email info@aclaontario.ca or visit our website at www.aclaontario.ca.
